And today's financial tip:

What is the difference between a Day Order and an Open Order?

An order to buy or sell a security that is automatically cancelled if it is not filled by the end of the day is called a Day Order. An Open Order remains good until it is either filled or the investor decides to cancel it; for that reason it is also called a Good-Till-Cancelled order.

The Board of Directors, Management and staff of the Eastern Caribbean Securities Exchange extend to all, best wishes for a healthy and prosperous 2018.
