And today's financial tip:

Very often the terms Intermediary and Broker Dealer are used, are they the same?

The terms Intermediary and Broker Dealer are often used interchangeably because they both refer to firms that are licensed to conduct securities business in the Eastern Caribbean. These firms act as the point of contact for investors wishing to purchase or sell securities that are listed on the ECSE. In the OECS, there are 10 intermediary firm. A list of the intermediaries can be obtained from the ECSE's website at www.ecseonline.com.
