And today's financial tip:

Can I give away a portion of my shares without trading on the secondary market?

Yes you may give a portion or all of your securities as a gift to a person, group or institution. This type of transaction is called a Donation Transfer. To do a donation transfer you are required to complete a copy of the ECCSR's Donation Transfer form. A copy of the new holder(s) ID, or legal documents for an institution, should be submitted to the ECCSR with the completed form. For further information on the document required to do a donation transfer you may visit our website at www.ecseonline.com
