And today's financial tip:

Is it possible to request an account statement on the shares that you own?

Yes, like you do with a commercial bank, you may request a statement of your shareholdings. To obtain a copy of your registry account statement you should complete an application for a copy of the ECCSR Statement and submit it to the ECCSR. For more information and for a copy of the application form you may visit our website at www.ecseonline.com.
