And today's financial tip:

If I buy a company's shares just after they declare dividends, will I receive a dividend payment?

Not necessarily. Shareholders must officially own shares at a particular date (also known as the record date) in order to be entitled to dividend payments. For example, a firm might declare a dividend on Nov. 1, payable Dec 1 to holders on record as at Nov. 15. If you purchased shares any time after Nov 15 you would not be eligible for that dividend payment.
