And today's financial tip:

I am newly married and wish to change my name on my shareholding account, how do I do that?

To request a change of name on your shareholding account you may complete a copy of our Application for Change of Name form. A licensed broker dealer or a notary public should certify the completed form. In the case of a change of name through marriage a certified copy of the holder's marriage certificate should accompany the completed form. In any other case, a certified copy of the legal documents pertaining to the change of name should be submitted.
