And today's financial tip:

What are government securities?

Government securities are financial instruments including treasury bills, notes and bonds that are issued by a government and sold to the public to pay off maturing debt and raise capital needed to finance government expenditure. Backed by the full faith and credit of the issuing government, these instruments are usually considered safe investments. Information is also available at the ECSE or on the ECSE website at www.ecsonline.com.
